

Sunset in Your Country

*Sunset in your country, sunrise in mine
Lay down your body as I begin to rise.
Sunset in my country, sunrise in yours
I feel you here in my heart.*

The day before you, it's mysteries unfold
My hope may flicker in the night.
But in the morning I'll plant another seed
and while you sleep it seeks the light.
Go to sleep, welcome the night
I will be here in the morning light.
Slip into dreams, you've don all that you can
I'll hold you there in the dark.

*Sunset in your country, sunrise in mine
Lay down your body as I begin to rise.
Sunset in my country, sunrise in yours
I feel you here in my heart.*
