

Across The Wide Ocean

Across the wide ocean

Across the wide ocean

I hear you calling me, Oh, my friend.

I hear you calling me, Oh, my friend.

We are the change bringers,

We travel through the night.

We're not afraid of darkness,

We're like a bird in flight.

I hear you calling me, Oh my friend.

I hear you calling me, Oh my friend.

I hear you calling me, Oh, my friend.

We are the change bringers

The Change begins to start

The bird of peace is rising

I feel it in my heart.

I hear you calling me, Oh my friend.

I hear you calling me, Oh my friend.
